Help make your HSA work harder for you by investing your savings

Learn more

With a Fidelity HSA there's no minimum to invest and no account transaction fees.¹ Consider putting your money to work by investing in your HSA.

Starting takes just 3 easy steps:

- Set a Cash Target
You have the option to set an amount to keep in cash for sudden qualified medical expenses. You can invest the remainder for potential tax free² growth.
- Do a Little Research
Explore your investment options, including our Fidelity HSA® Funds to Consider list. You can choose which ones are right for you, and adjust the amounts at any time.
- Set-up Automatic Investing
Another way to help you get more out of your HSA is to set-up automatic investing for your future payroll contributions into the funds of your choice.

¹There may be funds that require a minimum amount to invest, but Fidelity does not require a minimum to start investing. Account transaction fees refers to fees for account features such as account opening, funds transfer, debit cards, excess contributions, etc. and does not include recordkeeping fees, which may be charged to employers. Employers may choose to pass recordkeeping fees on to employees.

²With respect to federal taxation only. Contributions, investment earnings, and distributions may or may not be subject to state taxation. See your tax professional for more information on the state tax implications of HSAs.

In identifying investment options to include in the Fidelity HSA Funds to Consider, Fidelity only considered Fidelity open-end mutual funds and open-end mutual funds offered by a limited universe of third-party fund companies that participate in an exclusive marketing, engagement and analytics program with Fidelity for which they pay Fidelity an annual fee. The only third-party fund companies whose funds were eligible for this program were companies that generally have a track record of generating the strongest customer demand for their products from across Fidelity's customer channels and have been paying Fidelity a sufficient level of compensation for the shareholder servicing performed by Fidelity.
